

SYDNEY MIRA

ARTIST | SONGWRITER | PRODUCER

SYDNEY MIRA is a singer/songwriter from Massachusetts. She released her debut single "BAD" in September 2023, immediately followed by her 2nd single "Bite" in October 2023, and her 3rd single "Candy Necklace" in February 2024. Her newest release "SnipSnip" is a moody, sparse alt-pop song about cutting toxicity out of your life. Minimal production and clear vocals encapsulate the empowered feeling of taking control of your narrative. The melody is catchy. The lyrics are direct and strong.

SYDNEY MIRA's music is influenced by the darker pop sounds and creative lyricism of musicians such as BANKS, Julia Wolf, and Taylor Swift, coupled with the ethereal stylings of Ellie Goulding and Au/Ra. SYDNEY MIRA's lyrics are taken straight from her journal – honest, close to the heart, occasionally sarcastic, and confessional in their vulnerability. What we experience emotionally is layered and intricate, and those feelings and thoughts are intertwined in both darkness and light. These constant contradictions of emotion are what draw SYDNEY MIRA to create songs about the tangled parts of life, delving into topics such as toxic relationships (whether romantic or not), mental health, loss, love, and empowerment. As a passionate, fiery, and strong-willed Sagittarius, SYDNEY MIRA is always striving to break free of limitations, and songwriting is her escape.
